Michael Jordan recently broke up a heated confrontation involving Wack 100 that was captured on camera.

Michael Jordan Stops Wack 100 From Fighting

On Sunday (July 23), social media blog Dailyloud shared video that shows Wack 100 very close to getting into a fight of some sort outside while surrounded by a group of people. In the video, which you can watch below, Wack has his hands balled and is yelling at another person who is off camera.

"On Pitu, n*a," Wack 100 yells.

Suddenly, and most randomly, Michael Jordan steps through the crowd and gets in between Wack 100 and the person, and attempts to quell the situation. Another man, who appears to be a security guard, tries to usher Wack away, but Wack is defiant.
